

41st GOOD FRIDAY WALK 2004

Just to prove last year's weather was no fluke, and the gloom and doom forecast by the weathermen, again one of the sunniest Good Fridays. A good turnout of 25 walkers this year, of whom all but one completed the course. Congratulations to Peter Wiblin for a fifth year of consecutive victories – a record in itself.

Radley Triangle

This year's event again proved to be a huge success. Congratulations to James Marrable, our junior winner in 18 mins 37 secs. A turnout of 50+ this year, with everyone crossing the line receiving a baseball cap. First girl home was Rachel Wood – only seconds behind the winner. Well done all.

Thank you to:

- Denis and Jenny Standen for manning the drinks stations
- my wife Brenda, Bob Johnston and Eric Blanks for selling raffle tickets throughout the day
- my elder son Keith, who cycled the course with the leaders as Chief Marshal, relaying messages back by mobile phone as to their positions
- Millie Webb and Lizzie Cavanagh for holding the red tape for all finishers
- Derek Nutt for manning the church junction at the start
- Carol Cavanagh –Radley Clerk of the Green Cloth – for starting the walkers off
- Eddie and Carol for the use of the Bowyer Arms facilities throughout the day.

Raffle

Thank you also to the donators of raffle prizes – Michael Weinig UK Ltd, Marks & Spencer (Oxford), Peter Wiblin, Bob Johnston, Charlie McCarthy, Derek Nutt of DSJ (for the 'bunny') and Eddie & Carol Cavanagh.

Looking forward to 2005

Due to its success, the Radley Triangle will again be run. If there are any individuals/companies who would like to sponsor the event in any form, I will be more than happy to talk to you. I would like to produce a programme for the day, so advertisement space would be available.

The weather has been booked.... Look forward to seeing you all in 2005.
